We are excited to announce we are providing a Virtual Summer Camp program this year via a live stream over a secure platform. We will be offering fun activities that are close to an in-person camp. These activities include crafts, trivia games, talent show, scavenger hunts sing a long and more!

Campers will need:

- personal tablet, PC or phone with a working camera
- microphone
- internet connection
- headphones (optional)
- Zoom account
- current email account

We will offer closed captions in each camp session. Note: Camper should have space allow them to do activities that will not interfere with or potentially damage a computer, especially when crafting.

We will hold two Virtual orientations for Campers to meet the Counselors and ask any questions
 July 8 at 6:00 pm via Zoom
 Aug 5 at 6:00 pm via Zoom

All weeks of camp will have an AM & PM session—

- 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM
- break for lunch
- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

Once we receive your registration and payment we'll forward links to attend your session. Check out the posted calendar that shows the activities for each week along with a list for the supplies you will need for the Virtual Camp.

Most of the supplies you will need for the activities you might already have at home. For the supplies that you do not have you will be able purchase them from the Dollar Store to keep cost down.

12-person limit to attending any one session.

$50.00
per week

Fee to be paid when you register for camp. Your check/money order should be made out to The Arc Eastern Connecticut. Note "for Virtual Camp" on your check. Please mail check and registration to:
