Did you know . . .

It's estimated that as many as 8 million Americans—approximately 3 percent of the population—have intellectual and developmental disabilities.

People with IDD are eager to find jobs and be supporting members of their communities, yet nine out of 10 adults with IDD remain unemployed.

TALENT MATTERS.

Our specialized programs help people with intellectual and developmental disabilities prepare for competitive employment with area businesses.

We offer:

- Life skills, job readiness and self-advocacy trainings
- Career-specific programs in culinary arts, retail, landscaping, agriculture/aquaponics, hospitality/cleaning
- Six micro-enterprises offering real-world experience leading to competitive employment with area businesses

Our School to Work Transition Program helps students age 16-21 transition to successful employment through job readiness skills, exploring different careers, and providing job placement and life skills training.

Transitional Employment Services (TES) is a 3-year hands-on vocational training program that places people age 21 and up with local community partners.

HIRING MADE SIMPLE

Let Us Partner with Your Business . . .

Hiring someone with IDD may be the best decision an employer will ever make.
